Have the hosts changed?

Yes, they are, we're handing the mic to the pros! Fame Trivia is taking over, bringing more laughs, sharper questions, and top-tier hosting energy.

Will the games be the same?

Yes, it's true — some of our trivia games are changing. Some will look a little different. Some will be shiny and brand new. But fear not! The most important thing remains: fun will be had, bragging rights will be earned, and at least one team will argue over whether "The Rock" is a real name.

Pizza dinner option on the night?

This year, we are trialling the option of pre-ordering pizzas. Why not take the hassle out of one more thing to organise.

Are the tables getting a shake-up?

We're just switching up the layout — new table arrangements, fresh vibes, and slightly less chance of cheating off the team next to you. Why the change? Because growth. Because feng shui. Because someone kept sitting directly under the speaker and yelling "WHAT?!" every 10 seconds. We are creating a more team orientated layout for all.

Pricing update

Because quality trivia doesn't grow on trees! (We checked.) With Fame Trivia bringing the big brains and even bigger fun, we are levelling up the experience — and that means a small cost to keep the magic flowing. Still included: laughter, glory, brain strain, and wildly specific questions no one knew they knew. Think of it as paying for a gym membership... for your mind

Tables: Maximum of 8 team members

Special $30.00 per person

After special $35.00 per person
